let enormous taxes be levled, and bank. fiag. ruptey fall upon the city, and the workngmen will have to bear the heaviepart of the burden. Hard as are the imes in Memphis now, they are pros erous compared to what they would be under a corrupt and extravagant adminthe affairs of the city honestly, econom ically and with a view to the general good of the city? On the one hand is Busby, the people's candidate, with n fortune to make out of the city finances with no crowd of followers, who are followers because, and only be cause, they expect their reward: on the other hand is Mr. Longue tied hand and foot by promises, conditions and stipulations. The singular and inconruous combination of which he is the enter, is the result of a mutual comact to divide the spolls. Every man n Memphis knows that materials and dissimilar, so repellant and repugnant to each other, tolerate each other only because they ex-, ect it will pay. These men do not attempt to conceal the fact that the unholy alliance the have formed means, if they are successful, a parcelling out of the profits of those city revenuewhich should go to the improvement of the Nicholson pavement, and the carrying out of sanitary measures for the protection of the health and lives of our people. With these facts before kim can any honest man in Memphis hesitate as to which of the tickets he should support-Busby with no clamorous followers to sustain, or Loague with an army of hungry and impecutious hangers on to remember that Major J. J. Busby is one of themselves, that he holds their interests as sacredly as his own; and that it will be his pride and pleasure to so act while in office as to make their taxes as light as as the welfare of your friend, and stands between you now and the greedy politicians who are soliciting your votes that they may grow rich upon your hard earnings. which, under the name of taxes, they

THE CUBAN QUESTION. Yesterday the ceremony of delivering up the Virginius to the United States The ceremonial was simple enough, and opportunity of being informed upon the justice was a bitter pill to the Spanish representatives in Cuba. They consider that false logic always at hand to justify a wrong act, absolutely try to defend to the state of not only the seizure of the Virginius, but the cold-blooded butche and particularly anything pertaining to ius, but the cold-biooded butchery of fifty-three of her officers and crew! Francisco Mantaos, colonel of modern systems of sewerage, and make cavalry in the regular army of Spain, has addressed a letter to President Grant on the subject, in which he denals, and attributes the prompt, spirited and eminently legal demands of our government in the premises, to our country could affect the nounces the murdered men as crimigovernment in the premises, to our cown strength and the comparative weakness and embarrassed condition of Spain. This military gentleman demands why the United States has assumed the show of arbitrary the Spanish people; possible, since no man of city in this country could afford the amount of money it would cost. By sending a proper person to this sanitary congress, that knowledge could be had for nothing; and it is the very thing we need and will be invaluable to us.
